

EUROPEAN ORGANISATION OF
PRISON AND CORRECTIONAL SERVICES

EuroPris
PO Box 13635
2501 EP The Hague
Netherlands

COLLECTION OF STAFF TRAININGS ON RADICALISATION

2017 - 2019

Completed templates can be found on the EuroPris <http://www.europris.org/news/ran-training-collection/> or RAN https://ec.europa.eu/home-affairs/sites/homeaffairs/files/what-we-do/networks/radicalisation\_awareness\_network/ran-best-practices/docs/ran\_collection\_approaches\_and\_practices\_en.pdf website

Collected in 2017
1	Basic Training for Correctional Officers	University College of Norwegian Correctional Services (KRUS)	Plenary lectures, mini-group assignments (for the Ismail mini-casework, 6 hours) and Q&A sessions
2	E-learning: Understanding and Addressing Extremism in Prisons and Probation	HMPPS, United Kingdom	Online course
3	NeDiS - Network Deradicalisation in the penal System	Hessen, Germany	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Face-to-face training</li> <li>• Workshops</li> <li>• Advanced training programmes</li> <li>• Video and audio</li> </ul> E-learning platform for intercultural competence (SESAM, a software originally developed by the German Federal Office of Criminal Investigation and adapted for prisons by the Hesse Ministry of Justice).
4	Seminar and training for prison staff	Austria	One day seminar; Face-to-face training
5	The manifestation of extremism and radicalisation inside Czech prisons Updated 2019	Czech Republic.	The training is face-to-face. A staff handbook about extremism and its symbols is currently under development
6	Train-the-trainer awareness training and resource persons	The national security unit and the Danish Security and Intelligence Service.	Face-to-face training and introduction to a handbook and guidance manual.
7	Training courses on violent radicalisation and proselytism in prison Updated 2019	Italy	1. Frontal lessons 2. Vision of topic related videos and following discussion 3. Case study (working group)
8	Training for prison guards: 'Identification of signs of radicalisation'	Belgium	This classical face-to-face training takes place in a classroom setting. Course participants receive handouts of the PowerPoint presentation and links for further study. The exercises take place in simulation rooms, some with actors. Either real footage is used, or fragments involving actors, games and computer games. Course participants are assigned take-home observation exercises.

9	Training of on-site referee trainers (ORT) on violent Islamism radicalization awareness in detention Updated 2019	ENAP France	Training involves lectures by multidisciplinary experts, PowerPoint presentations and a pedagogical video. It also covers theoretical content on radicalisation and pedagogy courses.
10	How can our prison staff recognize radical elements among the prison and distinguish from religious practices?	German part of Switzerland , Prison Service	Discussions, group work, case studies, questions and answers The training is focused on the situation in the prison context and is aiming to elaborate best practices with the participants
New collected in 2018
11	General introduction into Radicalisation in detention	Romania	Part of the initial training for new recruits
12	General introduction into Radicalisation in the Swedish context	Sweden	Developed by security department
13	Sociocultural and behavioral keys of violent radicalization	Catalonia	The aim of the training is to recognize the main features of the Islamic religion and culture. Analyse the evolution and radicalization of Jihadism in our social environment. Improve the observation of indicators linked to personal processes of radicalization.
14	Techniques to develop critical thinking	Catalonia	The aim of the training is to help penitentiary staff to understand the process of radicalization through propaganda and manipulation, and to give them tools to promote critical thinking through individual and group activities with the inmates.
15	Processes of religious radicalization	Catalonia	Informative session on prevention of radicalization
New collected in 2019
16	Basic and specialized training	Slovakia	Problems addressed and duration: - Basic training (420 lessons): issues of terrorism, radicalization, extremism in prisons (2 lessons), - Specialized training (70 lessons): identification of signs of radicalization, terrorism, extremism in prisons, treatment of inmates showing these signs (2 lessons)

			- Specialized course for shift heads (108 lessons): fight against terrorism (2 lessons)
17	Training sessions for the prevention of radicalization in prisons	Romania	The course is based on elements specific to radicalization which led to elaborating the Strategy for preventing radicalization in the penitentiary environment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Identification of radicalization indicators;</li> <li>- Working together with civil society for reintegration;</li> <li>- Multi-disciplinary activities for efficient recuperative interventions;</li> <li>- Speciality support from national qualified structures from in regard of radicalization and terrorism.</li> </ul>
18	Prevention of Radicalisation in Prisons online HELP program	Belgium	CoE HELP Program to help participants understand the overall legal framework, European directives and to take a broader view than Belgium. The course can be taken upon registration. The entire process is supervised by a national tutor to motivate participants and supervise the process.
19	Radicalisation detection online course	Belgium	The main difficulty encountered in prison is the detection of the radicalisation of prisoners. This training courses were set up to raise awareness of the problem of radicalisation, indicators and how to transmit the information to the appropriate people. The course is available in French and Dutch. the online course allows everyone to access the training from their prison.
20	Radicalization / Extremism - Recognition, Understanding, Action	Switzerland	Training outouts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-important characteristics and signs of radicalisation/extremism</li> <li>-identification of radical attitudes among inmates and separation from merely orthodox attitudes</li> <li>-communication models in dealing with radicalized prisoners</li> <li>-strategies for prevention and dealing with radicalisation tendencies in daily work</li> </ul>
21	Training for prison sector	Netherlands	Two types of training for professionals working within the prison sector. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) A one-day basic training in which participants learn about trigger factors,</li> </ol>

			the importance of adolescence, signalling and interpreting. 2) An in-depth expert training with the duration of four days to gain insight in chain partners and reporting structures and to be able to train themselves.
22	Security measures and resocialization for frontline staff	Turkey	It is a combination of the relevant disciplines related to terrorism. Those disciplines primarily consist of sociology, psychology, international relations, communication, security and administrative sciences. It focuses on security measures to be taken and activities to be performed for the resocialization of terrorism-related convicts. The program consists of five modules, given within three weeks (19 work days) in training centers.
	Updates of trainings from 2017	Czech Republic, Italy, France

